Course Description: This course is an introduction to principles, elements, and practices of painting. Focus is on exploration of painting materials, perceptual skills and color theory, paint mixing and technique, as well as creative responses to materials and subject matter. (C-ID ARTS 210).

Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Create paintings that evince a working knowledge of the physical properties of painting materials.
2. Organize and apply the basic formal elements and principles of design in paintings.
3. Apply the principles of perceptually and theoretically based color theory to painting projects.
4. Construct and prepare painting surfaces and supports.
5. Develop expressive content through manipulation of mark, color, value, and composition.
6. Assess and critique paintings in group, individual, and written contexts using relevant critique formats, concepts and terminology.
7. Safely handle and use studio painting materials and equipment.

Examples of Assignments

Reading Assignments

1. Choose a painting from art history that you have been interested in or really appreciate. Research it on the internet, and read at least two separate articles about this work. Take notes and be prepared to discuss them in class.
2. Choose one of the following movements: Impressionism, Expressionism, Minimalism, Pop Art, Surrealism, Post-Impressionism, or Cubism. Find and read a current article about this movement. Bring this article to class and share your findings with another student. Be prepared for a class discussion.

Writing Assignments

1. Briefly describe your final painting in terms of the four C's (Content, Color, Composition, Contrast) in 1-2 pages. How does your painting relate to the artist you chose to emulate?
2. Write a 1-2 paragraph critique on the artwork of your classmates. Apply the elements of art and design principles in your critique and determine meaning based on your reading of visual language.

Out-of-Class Assignments

1. Visit your local book store and list the names of at least 6 different art focused magazines. Briefly describe your favorite of these magazines.
2. Visit a local gallery showing paintings. Choose one painting and describe it in relationship to the four C's (Content, Color, Composition, Contrast). What style is it painted in? Who is the artist? What is the title? When was it painted?
